ALBAYAN ACADEMY

Ustadha Bayan
Hawa

About Ustadha Bayan

Ustadha Bayan has been doing teaching Qur'an for 23+ years, through practical tajweed, tajweed theory courses and teacher training courses. She has authorised almost 50 sisters in this period who have completed their ijazah and are running their own classes.

A mother of three originally from Syria living in London. She has an ijazah from Makkah and Egypt Al-Azhar Al-Shareef - Biriwaya Hafs-An-Aasim. She is also a published author of arabic poetry.

She holds a higher diploma in teaching Qur'an from Makkah (دبلوم اعداد معلمات القرآن معهد باجودة مكة المكرمة - Bajodah Teacher's Training Programme)

She obtained a BA in Islamic Law and Masters Degree in Art of Teaching Languages from London Metropolitan University and currently doing her PHD. with the University of Minnesota, USA.

Regardless of level of tajweed, any sister who is able to independently read the Qur'an is welcome to begin the journey of obtaining ijazah. The journey can take between 2-5 years dependent on each student.

Structure of the Lessons

Class Day & Time

Morning: 10 a.m.

Evening: 7 p.m.

Link is sent a few minutes before class.

Duration: 1.5 – 2 hours

Class Size

Small groups of 10–15 sisters maximum.

Starting Point

All students begin with Surat al-Fātiḥa recitation.

Focus of Lessons

Recite Qur'an from beginning to end with correction.

Teacher corrects: pronunciation, tajwīd, and recitation mistakes.

Students develop:

A sensitive ear for Qur'an

Patience & confidence

Ability to teach Qur'an (regardless of language background)

Teaching Style

Practical, recitation-based journey.

Tajwīd theory applied in practice.

Personalised attention: teacher tracks each sister's progress.

Every sister moves at her own pace – no comparison between students.

Advanced sisters may join fast-track or one-to-one options.

End Goal

Completion of Qur'an with teacher.

Ijāzah (certificate) awarded upon finishing.

Many graduates go on to teach their children, neighbours, or run their own classes.

Missed Lessons

To qualify for recovering missed lesson, you must inform the teacher in advance by text.

Missed lessons must be recovered within the same month by:

Attending another class during the week, or

Arranging a private time with the teacher.

Lessons cannot be carried over to the next month except in cases of authorised absence:

Travel, illness, bereavement, or emergency.

Authorised absences must be covered within one month.

Missed lessons without notice cannot be rescheduled or refunded.

Additional Attendance

Students may join the other 10 weekly classes for free:

To listen and benefit, or

To cover a missed lesson (with permission).

Teacher Absence

If the teacher misses a class, it will always be rescheduled.

Lessons may be adjusted due to travel or time zones.

Students are asked to show flexibility and understanding to the teacher's busy schedules.

Commitment & Group Space

Consistent attendance is required.

Students who repeatedly miss lessons without notice may lose their place, which will be offered to someone on the waiting list.

Classroom Etiquette (Zoom Rules)

When joining Zoom:

Raise your hand and add a number next to your name.

You cannot skip the queue unless you inform the teacher before class and join early.

After reciting:

You may stay to listen, or leave politely.

If your number is high, you may step away and return later.

Zoom link will be locked once class is full (12–15 sisters).

Join your assigned day early to avoid being locked out.

The teacher will remain until all students have read.

Certificates & Records

All students must complete a registration form.

Attendance and progress are recorded for issuing certificates.

To withdraw or take a long break, you must give one month's notice.
